

Association of New Zealand Embroiderers' Guilds (ANZEG)

We are the parent organisation for 59 embroiderers' guilds all around New Zealand. The association's overall aim is to encourage embroidery in all its forms and regular exhibitions encourage design innovation and excellence in stitching.

ANZEG

The association keeps all the guilds in touch with each other through:

- A biennial conference and week of workshops.
- Regional representatives for each regional grouping of guilds.
- A resource custodian who has a vast range of materials for learning and teaching embroidery of all types available to guild members.

“Become involved in a wonderful hobby. Feel free to join us.”

Our Guild

Originally founded by 13 members in June 1990, we officially became affiliated to the Associated Embroiderers' Guilds of New Zealand in June 1991.

Our Guild aims to promote embroidery and unite those who are interested in all types of stitching.

Our Guild has 19 members and we hold a formal meeting on the 3rd Monday of the month – at the Bridge Club. At this meeting we have a variety of activities – mini workshops, Guild projects, displays of work and access to the Guild's library.

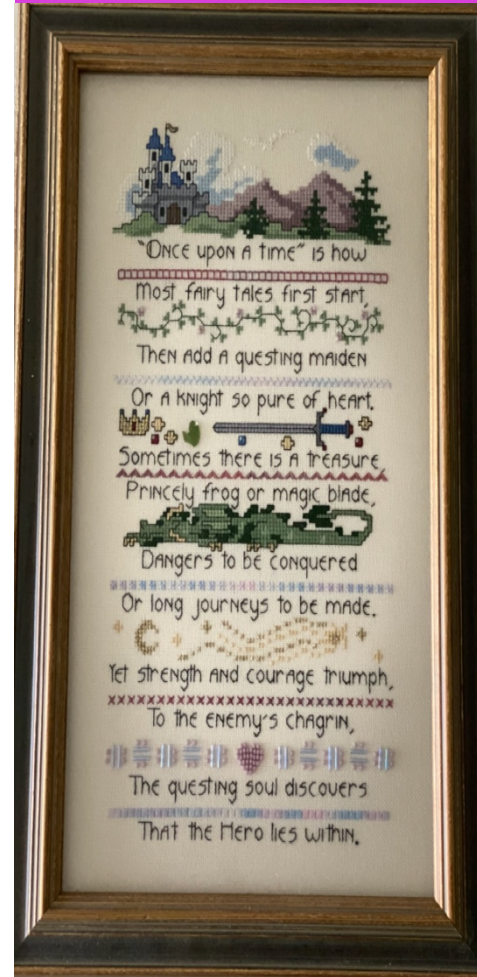

We have one less formal meeting called "Stitch and Chat", held at the Bridge Club. This meeting takes place on the first Monday of every month from 10am to 2pm. At this meeting, members work on their own stitching. This is a great opportunity to get advice, encouragement and ideas from other members.

"Within our members we have a vast array of knowledge. Join us to be encouraged, inspired, educated, to stitch and enjoy the company of other like-minded embroiderers."

"Join the skilled needles of our local Embroiderers' Guild to pick up a few tips, join in on creative projects, or just for a chat!"

A great place to learn and share embroidery – everything from cross stitch to mixed media creations, goldwork to blackwork, canvas work to beadwork to just about any other embroidery.
